

FOR YOUTH DEVELOPMENT®
FOR HEALTHY LIVING
FOR SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

Copley-Price Family YMCA YAA Survey

Copley-Price Family YMCA is committed to providing diverse programming for residents of all ages. We are now in a unique position to launch new events and activities designed to help bridge the generational gap between older adults and kids and teens. Please share your honest input on the following questions. All responses are confidential.

1. Are you interested in volunteering in your community? Yes No

2. Do you feel there are an adequate number of opportunities to interact or volunteer with younger people in your community?

Not at all No, not much Yes, somewhat Yes, a lot

3. How often do you currently engage with teens and/or children?

Never Rarely Sometimes Often

4. Which activities do you enjoy and might be interested in teaching to and/or participating in with younger people? (Check as many that apply)

- | | | | |
|---|---|--|--------------------------------|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Tech Classes | <input type="checkbox"/> Gardening | <input type="checkbox"/> Community Service | <input type="checkbox"/> Music |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Arts & Crafts | <input type="checkbox"/> Oral Histories | <input type="checkbox"/> Cooking | <input type="checkbox"/> Dance |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Sports (any specific? _____) | <input type="checkbox"/> Other: _____ | | |

5. What is your level of interest in engaging with a younger generation?

Not interested A little interested Somewhat interested Definitely Interested

6. What do you think would be the benefits of participating in intergenerational activities/events?

(OVER)

7. What concerns, if any, would you have if you participated in activities with teens and/or children (intergenerational activities)?

OPTIONAL: If you would like to be contacted about potential intergenerational opportunities in the future, please feel free to share your contact information:

[Optional] Name:

[Optional] Phone number:

[Optional] Email: