TESTIMONIAL

In 2015, I received custody of my 4 girls. I was broke with nowhere to go, but I wanted something productive for my girls. Someone suggested the YMCA. I remember clearly walking through the doors of the old facility and I spoke with staff. They were able to provide me a scholarship for my membership and sports. This place was like a backyard for my girls where they had room to run and play. Jackie Robinson has been a pillar and sanctuary in my family. They have always welcomed us. The way I give back here is with consistency and integrity by being a soccer coach. I am helping to build the community where my children live. I am so grateful for all the Y has done and continues to do to help support my family. Jackie Robinson has transformed our family's life. Thank you to all that have made this possible.
